INSTRUCTIONS

1. You are required to utilize the first ten minutes for reading the question paper.
2. You will not be allowed to write during this time.
3. Write the main question number and the sub-question numbers correctly.
4. Neatness should be maintained by avoiding overwriting or striking out.

SECTION-A

1. With the use of machines, goods could be produced in large quantities. (6 marks)
   a) Name the two important powerful sources of energy.
   b) What do we get from crude oil?
   c) What was Industrial revolution?

2. Observation and experimentation led to specialization in different types and areas of medicine. (8 marks)
   a) Who invented microscope and when?
   b) What are X-Ray machines?
   c) What is Immunology?
   d) Who was Humphrey Davy?
3. Soon all the countries were involved in a fight and it turned into a major war in 1914. (5 marks)

a) Why did the European countries want to acquire colonies in Asia and Africa?
b) Why was the League of Nations set up?

4. Write a note on UNICEF? (5 marks)

5. Why was the Non-aligned Movement started? Name the countries and their leaders who started it. (5 marks)

6. Pick out the right answers: (3 marks)

a) The Secretary General is the head of the General Assembly/Secretariat.
b) The first to use alphabetical system were the Chinese/Greeks.
c) The two super powers emerged after the First/Second World War.

7. What do you understand by the following terms: (8 marks)

a) Apartheid
b) Dehydration
c) Hydro-electricity
d) Recycling

SECTION B

1. Fill in the blanks: (10 marks)

a) __________ is buried deep under the Earth's surface.
b) The word 'paper' is derived from __________.
c) The UN aims at maintaining international __________ and __________.
d) __________ is the present Secretary General of UN.
e) India has sent peace keeping forces to __________ and __________.
f) The Headquarters of the FAO is in __________.
g) Steam engine was invented by ____________ in the year ____________.

1. Match the Following: (5 marks)

   A
   FAO
   Incurable disease
   Zero
   Arab-Israeli War
   UN Symbol

   B
   Concept used by Indians
   Olive Branches
   Specialized agency of UN
   AIDS
   Localized wars

2. Write the full form of the following: (6 marks)
   State one function of each of the following:

   a) ILO
   b) FAO
   c) UNESCO

3. Correct the following statement: (5 marks)
   a) ILO headquarters are located in New York.
   b) USA and China emerged as superpowers.
   c) Guttenberg of Holland made small blocks of wooden letters of the alphabet.
   d) The first vaccine to develop was the malaria vaccine.
   e) USA dropped atom bombs on the Osaka and Tokyo cities in Japan.

4. Look at the picture and answer the following questions: (4 marks)

   [Image of a person]
a) Name the person.
b) Which country does he belong to?
c) How is this officer appointed?

5. Name the following:

a) The war fought in 1914.
b) He was the first person to use antiseptic to prevent infection.
c) Magnifies the sound of heart and lungs.
d) The first people to use finger counting.
e) The UN agency that was created to fight hunger.
f) The headquarters of IMF
g) Inventor of Electric battery.
h) An alternative source of energy.
i) Any two antibiotics.